

Richard Delorenzo

Retired Accountant

66 years old

Saratoga Springs, New York

Married

Two Adult Children

Biography

Richard relocated to Saratoga Springs, New York from Long Island last year after retiring as one of the principals of an accounting firm where he had worked for nearly four decades. Since retiring and moving Upstate to Saratoga, Richard has been seeking to build new connections and pursue his hobbies, which include painting and photography.

This month Richard looked into taking continuing education courses in nature photography from multiple different local providers such as the Saratoga Arts Center, the Beekman Street Arts District (Saratoga Springs), the Shirt Factory in Glens Falls, as well as the Adirondack Folk School in Lake Luzerne.

Motivations

- Is a lifelong learner who finds it refreshing to learn new things or pursue his hobbies
- Enjoys socializing and making new connections with people who share similar interests
- After retiring, is seeking out new endeavors which provide a sense of purpose

Frustrations

- Often feels socially isolated and disconnected having recently relocated to a new area